

Naughty or Nice on Ice

Our version of the beloved whiskey sour is light and refreshing, but still strong enough to make you feel really festive. With honey and citrus, it's the perfect combo of sweet and sassy. Plus it has bourbon, so what's not to like?

What You'll Need:

1 tablespoon of the finest local artisan small-batch honey you can find (just kidding, any honey will do)

1 1/2 teaspoons warm water (but not too warm, because you don't want to burn your sweet little lips)

3 orange slices, cut into four equal pieces, plus 1 orange wheel, for garnish

Ice

1 1/2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice

1/4 cup of bourbon

In a cocktail shaker, stir the honey and water until the honey is dissolved. This step is more fun if you play some lively Christmas music and stir in time with the beat. Next, add the orange slices and muddle like you've never muddled before. Then, fill the shaker with ice and add the lemon juice and bourbon. Shake well and strain into an ice-filled rocks glass. Dress it up with the orange wheel and enjoy. And if you've been on the naughty list, repeat steps 1-4 until you feel nice.
